Product description

A large forged statue handcrafted in stainless steel depicting an attacking dragon in two towers.

The figure is very chunky -

weight is around 31 lbs (13,7 kg)

height is 24 inches (60 cm)

width is around 28 inches.(72 cm)

The whole figure consists of hundreds of elements, each of which was hand-made and then put together by our master metalworker. The figure is made entirely of stainless steel, the color of the figure is obtained thanks to the natural discoloration obtained during high temperature processing. We can also make any other forged steel figure on request.
