Product description

Handcrafted sculpture of a stainless steel pirate sailing ship. The ship is called "Ranger", it is a Charles Wayne pirate ship (featured in Assassins Creed 4, among others)

The ship was made with attention to every detail. The ship's rudder turns, the lid of the hold is opened, the ship has a lowered ladder, each board from which the ship is made was created as a separate element and then assembled into one whole. The ship rests steadily on a stand in the form of four skeletons that hold it. The masts and sails of the ship are removable, the name of the ship is visible on the rear and side. In addition, the ship is equipped with cannons, mortars, lifeboats, cannonballs, woven ropes and many other details, all to create the greatest possible realism. The ship is not painted, the color of the ship is due to the natural color of blacksmith treated stainless steel, it is a very noble color.
